ABOUT THE PROPERTY

Awsome river bottom containing almost ten acres and over a half mile long plus one hundred acres of upland forest. There is a home that could be repaired or removed to make way for your dream home. Other amenities include a septic system, a well that is less than ten years old, huge barn with loft, garage and a storage building. There are also trails running all through the woods where you can ride your atv's and horses, so come check out this great property on the Clinch river and see the endless possibilities this property offers. This property would make a wonderful development or place to build a hunting and fishing lodge or camp.
